Attractions

Taipa Houses

Acclaimed as one of the top eight sites of Macao, it represents the charming Portuguese architectural style in Taipa. The Portuguese residences along Avenida da Praia, together with the neighbouring Our Lady of Carmel Church and the garden, comprise a picturesque landscape in which the five green houses stand out as the most representative.

Our Lady of Carmel Church

Built in 1885, this church stands on a hill overlooking the sea, Taipa Village and the restored mansions of Old Taipa Praia.

Rua do Cunha

It is a narrow but bustling pedestrian street in the heart of Taipa village. Walking on the street, you will see the original community of the Island and find countless famed old restaurants that offer plenty of traditional cuisines. This small maze of narrow lanes and alleys is always packed with tourists. It becomes a popular place for shops selling desserts, almond biscuits, egg rolls, coconut flakes and peanut candies, some of which you can buy as souvenirs.

Pak Tai Temple

As one of the remarkable temples in Taipa, Pak Tai Temple has a rich history stretching back to 160 years ago, according to a stele with carved inscription in the temple. A worship pavilion is set up for its followers to put tribute and offerings, which is rarely seen elsewhere on the island. In celebration of Feast of Pak Tai on the 3th day of the 3rd month in Lunar Calendar each year, performances of Chinese opera are usually held in a mat-shed in front of the Temple. Also you can rent a bike nearby and enjoy the tour in this old neighbourhood.

Former Iec Long Firecracker Factory

Former Iec Long Firecracker Factory has a history of nearly 100 years and covers an area of around 25,000 square meters. The site still preserves the original layout and environment of the former production structures, making it the only well-preserved heritage site of the firecracker industry in Macao.

Calçada do Quartel

The eye catching coloured buildings located on both sides of the alley of Calçada do Quartel, not only are they decorated in colourful graffiti, there are also many specialty eateries and cultural and creative shops, such as cafe and snack bar with distinctive personalities, which became a popular photo hotspot in the area.

Team Building Activities

The team building activity is a perfect fusion of treasure hunt and great race where the teams need to solve challenges using an iPad to get instructions. Throughout the race the teams will unlock some hidden treasures and solving team challenges that will make them taste, touch, learn, experience and, most of all, have fun!
